Of four gentlemen who took an active part in the Millard case in this city Saturday's Evening Mail had the following: "Hon. J. C. Stanchard was presented with a full-blown Jersey oak by Judge Maxson. The judge has a large stock farm near Bay City, and devotes special attention to the Jersey breed of cattle."

AMUSEMENTS.

Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels at Powers's Last Night.

Every available space was occupied in the theatre last night, it being, too, the second appearance of the Thatcher, Primrose & West Minstrels here this season, whose popularity in this city shows increase at each engagement. The company has undergone some changes in its personnel since last summer, and on the whole the entertainment of last night was the best they have ever given here. With new songs, fresh jokes and excellent music, and a constant development of mirth-provoking novelties, the company of last night does the largest business of any minstrel organization on the road, and their annual tour is a nightly repetition of success financially and otherwise, like that which was indicated in the reception given them last evening, by one of the largest audiences of the season.

Louise Sylvester's Engagement.

In the engagement of Louise Sylvester and her excellent company at Redmond's for to-morrow evening and New Year's afternoon and evening, Manager Powers has provided a good opportunity for the theatergoers having a happy New Year. The subjoined is from the Detroit Free Press:

It is true that she is the Ferret that gets at the bottom of all the rascality that is going on, but she is actuated by a girl's overpowering curiosity; besides, there is a real detective, who seems abundantly able to attend to the rogues, a detective who has a fair appreciation of what a detective is, and does not don unheard-of disguises for every scene and have the lights turned down every time he steps upon the stage.

Miss Rogers played Edith Walton, the wronged and deserted, yet still loving and trusting wife, as only such a thorough and appreciative actress can play it. Mestayer was equally successful as the rascally husband. The comedy element of the play embraces Solomon Northey, a light-fingered gentleman from Chatham street, and Monty, a cockney swell nobleman. These characters were happily assumed by Barry Maxwell and Edward F. Sylvester.

"Freaks" at Redmond's.

"Freaks" will be the attraction at Redmond's Grand Wednesday and Thursday evenings, with a Thursday matinee. The New York Mirror, the most reliable journal in the country on dramatic events, says: "Throw away the idea that you are to see or hear anything probable, and 'Freaks' is one of the most acceptable plays of the day. If it is one of the highest missions of the theater to give pure, jolly fun, then 'Freaks' helps it well in the work. It is such a piece as would do the tired business man more good than all the doctors in the land. It requires no thought to enjoy it. All you have to do is to sit there and laugh."

"Caprice."

Minnie Madden, who was so well received here two years ago, will appear at Powers's Friday and Saturday in her new play, "Caprice," which is spoken of in the highest terms by the Metropolitan journals. Reserved sale of seats commences at Hall's to-morrow morning.

PERSONAL.

Frank Jewell and Louis Hoyt go to Lansing to-day to visit friends.

United States Attorney J. W. Stone went to Cadillac yesterday, and will return to-day.

U. S. Marshal Monroe went to Muskegon yesterday, and will be absent until Wednesday.

Assistant U. S. Attorney W. W. Hyde left for the Upper Peninsula yesterday, to be absent until the end of the week.

Mrs. Kent, mother of Don J. Leathers, Esq., was stricken with paralysis Sunday evening at the residence of her daughter. The entire left side is affected, and as she is sixty-five years of age, recovery is doubtful.

Clerk Abrams, of the Morton, received a valuable Christmas present. Two very handsome oil panels, with gilt frames. The subject of the paintings were flowers and they were most exquisitely done. They were the gift of a lady admirer in Washington.

The Lansing Republican says: "Lieutenant Governor Crosby, of Grand Rapids, is in the city. Hosts of friends heartily welcome him wherever he goes. He was one of the best presiding officers who ever held a gavel over the Michigan State Senate."

Royal Arcanum.

Bryant Council, at its annual meeting, held Friday evening, Dec. 26, 1884, elected the following officers: Regent, Hugh McCulloch; Vice-Regent, R. J. Stow; Orator, J. B. Barlow; Past Regent, Wm. B. Loveland; Secretary, M. E. Pierce; Collector, W. R. Adams; Treasurer, J. M. Wilcox; Chaplain, Milo B. Randall; Grudge, L. C. F. Hinz; Warden, S. W. McKee; Sentry, E. A. Munson; Trustees, James Dolbee, E. E. Judd, W. Y. Barclay; Representative to Grand Council, Wm. B. Loveland; Alternate, Aaron L. Bennett.

A Farmer in Limbo.

A farmer named Henderson was arrested on Saturday for being drunk and lodged in jail over Sunday. He had a load of hay, which stood out doors Saturday and Sunday and got so soaked with rain as to be entirely worthless. He sold the hay yesterday for a dollar. He claims he was not drunk, and that he only took two drinks, also that his pockets were picked, and possibly may make a complaint against the supposed pickpockets.

Officers Elected.

The Bricklayers' and Masons' Union No. 7 have elected the following officers: President, E. Parsons; Vice-President, R. Smith; Treasurer, P. H. O'Neill; Financial Secretary, C. J. Donovan; Corresponding Secretary, J. Sullivan; Recording Secretary, Frank Howe; Conductor, Chas. Forrester; Doorkeeper, R. A. Wessolius; Trustees, E. Hoskins, P. McIntosh, J. Orth.

Grandville F. and A. M.

Jennison Lodge, No. 322, F. & A. M., of Grandville, formally dedicated their new hall on Saturday, St. John's Day. R. C. Hathaway, F. D. G. M., representing the M. W. Grand Master, had charge of the dedicatory services, and also delivered the address of the evening and installed the new officers. The ceremonies were closed with a banquet.

Failed to Keep His Promise.

A girl named Tiny Murray swore out a warrant in the Police Court yesterday charging Henry Lutter with bastardy. She alleges that Henry was first intimate with her on the night of Oct. 26, the day of the Democratic election, and that before that he promised to marry her, but has since refused to do so.

The finest assortment of Cutters in the city at A. R. Antidel's.

Piano to be Given Away.
It has been stated by certain competitors through advertisements and in conversation with people that the Sohmer piano is a "second-class" and an "inferior" instrument. In order to give them a chance to substantiate these statements publicly I will make the following offer:
If these parties will bring competent authority and proof that the Sohmer is not a "first-class" piano in tone, action, material, workmanship and durability—in fact in every respect—I will give the finest piano at my store to a worthy musical society of this city free of charge.
This offer I will hold open for the next thirty days.
In the meantime I invite the public to call at my store to examine the Sohmer, which is the standard of excellence.

OUR PRICES.

Are conceded by all to be lower than those of any firm in the state.

We warrant all of the goods we sell, and we buy our goods as cheap as any one in the State, as we buy in lots of 50 and 100 of a kind. We purchased our Overcoats late in the season and of firms who needed money badly, at 33 1-3 to 50 per cent. below market value. But no matter how low we offered the fine ones, for we sold but very few, and now we are going to sacrifice them even at a loss of 15 to 25 per cent. on the cost. All we ask is to compare our goods with those of other houses, and we will prove to you that our prices are as low and even lower than those offered by others, and that our goods are as well made.
